

COUNTER-HISTORY & THEORY

A symposium on the history of contemporary theory and theory's role in the practice of history

APRIL 26, FISHER-BENNETT HALL #401, UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

- 1 pm Ethan Kleinberg & Gary Wilder in conversation with Warren Breckman,
"The Role of Theory in Critical History: A Manifesto and Its Consequences"
- 2:45 Gabriel Rockhill, "From Counter-History to Subterranean History: Soft Power and the Construction of 'French Theory,'" with Jennifer Ponce de León, respondent
- 4 pm Kristin Ross, "The Seventh Wonder of the ZAD"
- 5:30 Public reception, Fisher-Bennett Hall 135

Free and open to all. For more information & readings, see <https://criticaltheoryworkshop.com>

Organized by Andrew Baird, Jennifer Ponce de León and Gabriel Rockhill
Sponsored by the Critical Theory Workshop, the Working Group on Counter-History and Theory at UPenn, and UPenn's Department of English